

BLACK SOX HIT BALL HARD AND DEFEAT BENDERS

Asher Clouts Home Run, Good For Three Scores—Final Count is Eleven to Four Against the Locals.

Special to The News-Times.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 17.—Grand Rapids swatters again proved too much for the South Bend twirlers and the locals made 15 swats, four being doubles and one homer, which clinched the battle 11 to four. Still, Grand Rapids' shortstop, had a perfect day at bat and in the field scoring four runs and getting four hits.

The visitors tallied three in the fifth when Thomas walked, Landick lived on an error and Asher combed a homer to left. Watkins then replaced Loudermilk in the sixth and walked Landick, who scored later on Me's drive.

In the second Doe Schmick walked, Hughes doubled to center. Still singled to right scoring Schmick. Eck flew to left, but Oshinski came through with a single to center scoring Hughes and Still.

In the fourth, Hughes drew a pass and Still doubled. Beck rapped through Tegtemeyer driving in the brace of tallies. Then in the next frame Tydeman drove one to center scoring ahead of Grodick, who sent a homer to left. Schmick and Hughes went out, but Still again doubled, scoring a moment later on Eck's drive through third.

Moore took up the task at this stage and escaped in the sixth but the seventh Schmick shot one to left. Still pounded one to right. Eck was safe on Tegtemeyer's error and Watkins drove Doe and Tuffy across when he lined a sizzler to center.

Grimes sent one to left scoring Eck but Watkins was caught off second for the third out.

ZBYSZKO WANTED IN RETURN BOUT

Wrestler Who Threw Martinson May Sign Agreement to Throw Hussian A. Salome Twice Within an Hour.

Young Zbyszko whose work delighted local fans here a few nights ago is expected to be seen in action here in the near future when he takes on Hussian A. Salome, the Turk, who issued a challenge when Zbyszko threw Paul Martinson at the Polish Turner Hall.

The two men have been on the verge of agreeing to settle the question of supremacy for some time and it begins to look as if the local promoters of the wrestling game will get them together. Both men have agreed to wrestle, but the question of a division of the spoils is still unsettled.

In case the bout is arranged it will not be a straight out and out wrestling affair but the fans can be assured that they will see some action for their money as Zbyszko has agreed to throw the Turk twice within an hour or forfeit the match.

Salome is a well set up wrestler, and is able to take care of himself when placed against the best of the men in the game. However, Zbyszko is admitted to be his better, but there remains a question as to his ability to throw the Turk twice within an hour.

Zbyszko is a brother of the famous Stanislaus Zbyszko and is the Polish champion. He has met a number of the best men in this and foreign countries and so far has never been placed on his back during a bout.

HOUEK WINS BOUT.
PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Willie Houek, the Germantown lightweight, defeated Willie Baker in six hard rounds at the Broadway A. A. Thursday night. Houek was greatly out-weighted by Baker, who also had height and reach on him.

Becker's Long Triple to Left Starts Run Getting for Seminary Lads—High Finish Strong But Lose 5 to 3.

Seven and one-half innings of "fair to middlin'" ball were enough to spell defeat for the high school baseballers in the opening tilt of the season, with Holy Cross seminary, at Notre Dame, Thursday afternoon. When the smoke lifted the score read 5 to 3 with high school the under dog.

Holy Cross started strong and shoved across one of their counters in the first round, when F. Rogers singled and Becker poled a long triple to left. Another marker was annexed during the seminary's half of the third inning. Mulcair was safe on a dropped ball and blue sixth, followed by a two base clout by Allen, and an error by Schrier, gave the high school their last two runs.
